

Child and Vulnerable Group Protection Declaration

In applying for and signing the let application form the hiring organisation/individual acknowledges the responsibility and confirms that they adhere to best practice in relation to child and vulnerable group protection in line with the Protection of Children \(Scotland\) Act 2003 and the Protection of Vulnerable Groups \(Scotland\) Act 2007.

Organisations/Clubs Applying For Let

Compliance with these protection responsibilities will require an organisation to have a child protection vulnerable group policy; suitable recruitment, vetting and selection procedures for staff and volunteers and registration with an appropriate Child, Vulnerable Group Protection Body. These are the Central Registered Body for Scotland (CRBS); Disclosure Scotland; or an umbrella body registered to CRBS or Disclosure Scotland.

Further information and guidance about the Scheme is available from Disclosure Scotland at www.disclosurescotland.co.uk

Individuals Applying For Let

Individuals applying for a let are asked to complete the Child and Vulnerable Group Declaration overleaf and submit with the signed School Let Application request form to the relevant Lets Officer.

Additional information is available at www.volunteerscotland.net

Anyone who works closely with children or groups of vulnerable adults on a regular basis should be a member of the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (PVG) Scheme.

Child and Vulnerable Group Protection Declaration

All applicants who are applying for lets as individuals – not on behalf of recognised clubs, groups or organisations – are required to sign this Declaration.

The signed Declaration should be returned to the relevant Lets Officer with the booking application request form.
